What you will need:

Colored Paper

Poster Board (Optional)

How to make:

1. Before class print out the heart patterns onto white paper and the Bible verses onto different colors of paper.
2. Cut the hearts out and the verses apart.
3. In class spread out the hearts on a table so the children can see them or tape them to a bulletin board or poster board. Assign each child, or group of children, one of the Bible verses. Have them look up the verses, read them and decide which of the hearts go with their verses.
4. Have each group of children read their verse and explain why they picked the heart they picked. Check the Bible Verse List to see if they are correct.
5. Staple the corresponding Bible verse on the bulletin board and have one of the children tape the matching heart next to the verse.
6. If you don't have time to split the children up into groups, you can give each child a heart and then read a verse and staple it to the bulletin board. If a child thinks he has the matching heart, he can raise his hand. If the heart matches he can tape the heart next to the verse.

If you don't want to print out the verses onto colored paper and cut them out, you can use the verse posters. Print them out onto white paper and tape them together. Print out the smaller hearts (There are two sets of hearts on the pattern) and cut them out. You can just cut them in squares instead of cutting out around the outlines to save time. Have your children glue the hearts to the poster.
